Sport in Missouri.

Sport in Missouri.

Possum and 'coon hunting is no longer a recreation indulged in by sturdy woodsmen and old-time sportsmen New votaties to the exciting chase have arisen among the younger members of Smithville. Mo, society, and the girls are said, to enjoy the sport as much as the boys. Several parties have here out during the last big moon, with varying success. On one occasion, when four skunks were captured and killed by the dogs, a dissolution of partnership among the hunter came near taking place, because the girls refused to carry the game.—Kansas City Journal.

Coming European Rulers.

There are fifteen thrones in Europe, and eight now promise to pass from father to son. The latter are those of Great Rrit. Aim. Germany, Denmark, Portugal, Norway and Sweden, Bulgaria, Russia and Italy. The Sultan may be succeeded by a brother and the king of Spain by a sister. The Emperor of Austria, the King of the Belgians and the King of Roumania look to nephews, while the rules of Holland has no visible successor at present.

RACE HAS BECOME CEASELESS GRIND

Every Hour Places Riders Farther Behind Record of

Previous Years. (By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The big six-day bicycle race at Madlson Square Gerden, in which the best long distance men in the world are fighting for gold and glory, by to-day had developed into a steady, ceaseless grind. Worn by the many hours, none of the riders seemed anxious to set a "killing pace," and every hour placed the riders farther behind the record established in previous contests.

Munroe, the partner of Walthour, nearly lost a lap early to-day. A long sprint was started by Rood and Turville, and they had nearly caught Munroe when his partner, Walthour, came on the tract, and after riding several laps caught the men again. Munroe retired for a rest sayon Williams was so badly injured in a fail that he was unconscious for some time. Williams collided with Improvement and Krebs and Munroe fell uppa him Krebs, left hand was hart by iders passing over them. The addence caused great excitement, and the crowd, which numbered housends, tried to rush to the point where it took place. The police kept the crowd back with difficulty. Williams was axed up by the physicians, and after an hour's rest returned to the track.

During the afternoon "Willle" Fern broke his own record for one-fifth of A mile, going the distance in twenty and one-fifth seconds. The prevous record was twenty-one and four-fifths seconds.

Frank Krimer was unsuccessful in an attempt to break the world's record for one-man four-fifths seconds.

At 10 o'clock to-night 831 miles and nine of tweny-four and four-fifths seconds.
